b) Mayor and Council Reports

Acting Mayor Berrigan

On July 18th Councillor Berrigan represented Council at the Skywax Powwow and on August 9th he attended Cornstock.

Councillor Crowe

Councillor Crowe reported:

- July 12 - attended the Board of Directors meeting and Annual General Meeting of the Adams River Salmon Society. Was invited to attend the installation of the fish fence on Scotch Creek on August 5;
- July 16 - our CAO and I participated in a conference call with Mayors and CAO from other communities and BC Hydro regarding a fast charging station for electric vehicles. This meeting was to gather information to bring forward to council;
- July 18 - 20 - attended the Skwlax Pow Wow;
- August 4 - attended the Royal Canadian Legion ceremony Commemorating WW-1 Veterans at the Chase Cemetery;
- August 5 - attended the installation of the fish enumeration fence on Scotch Creek by the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band Fisheries Dept;
- August 8 - went out on the Adams Lake Indian Band fish boat to observe the catch of early returns of Scotch Creek Sockeye Salmon. My observations at both of these events will form part of my report at the next Board of Directors meeting of the Adams River Salmon Society.

8.5 Request for Resolution from United Steelworkers

Moved by Councillor Scott

Seconded by Councillor Crowe

“WHEREAS it has been more than two decades since the Westray mine disaster in Nova Scotia and a decade since amendments were made to the Criminal Code of Canada to hold corporations, their directors and executives criminally accountable for the health and safety of workers; and

WHEREAS police and prosecutors are not utilizing the Westray amendments, and not investigating workplace fatalities through the lens of criminal accountability; and

WHEREAS more than 1,000 workers a year are killed at work

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Village of Chase Council support a campaign to urge our federal / provincial / territorial government to ensure that:

- Crown attorneys are educated, trained and directed to apply the Westray amendments;
- Dedicated prosecutors are given the responsibility for health and safety fatalities;
- Police are educated, trained and directed to apply the Westray amendments;
- There is greater coordination among regulators, police and Crown attorneys so that health and safety regulators are trained to reach out to police when there is a possibility that Westray amendment charges are warranted.”
